

Threshold of Life

meeting death and dying consciously with Lisa Devine and Pippa White

Saturday 21st September 2019

This workshop is for everyone who is interested in exploring death from a spiritual point of view as indicated by Rudolf Steiner.

The focus will be on the mystery of true life that shelters within the mystery of death.

What are the changes of consciousness that happens at this threshold and how to accompany the dying person?

How can we work with those who have crossed the threshold?

How those who have crossed the threshold continue to work with us?

The role of the end life services offered by the Christian Community, the demonstration of the preparation of the body after the death as well as the role of the vigil will be presented.

A ceremony honoring the dead will be held: participants will have an opportunity to light and place a candle in a sand bowl, to honor someone who has crossed the threshold.
