The theme "Have you the will to become whole?:" For seven years (2010 – 2017) we focused on each of the seven I AM sayings of Jesus Christ from John's Gospel. Since then we have begun a series of themes on the seven signs performed by Jesus Christ, also from John's Gospel. The theme for this camp is taken from the third sign, following on from "Water Into Wine" (2018) and "Unless You See Signs And Wonders" (2019).

If you feel inspired to facilitate a workshop on the theme, or coordinate one/some of the essential activities that enable the Camp to happen, or have questions, contact Ioanna Panagiotopoulos or Cheryl Nekvapil.

Life at Camp: Activities will focus around the theme as experienced at this Campsite, with morning talks for some while others of us enjoy the wonders and recreation of nature, sub-alpine landscape with a Little Lake – fed by a fresh spring.

Afternoon activity groups encourage us to surprise ourselves and others, and there are the morning and evening circles, more nature time, sharing in preparing meals and clearing away, golden silence and epic storytelling, all life and heart-beat of our days being together in one place.

The beginning and close of each day will be celebrated with Services to conclude the 12 Holy Nights of Christmas flowing on into Epiphany, finishing with The Service for Children at Epiphany on Monday 6th January.

We have a firm tradition of a spectacular concert presented by camp participants on the last night of Camp which will be Sunday 5th January. For the past two years we have then gone out into the night only to be awed and blessed by The Three Kings and their retinue staying a while with us before they continue on their way. And we will look for them again on Epiphany Eve 2020.

Getting to Snowy River Camp: It's a 50 min drive from Albury (NSW/ACT) or Wodonga (Vic) travel SE, then E along the Murray Valley Highway by the shores of Lake Hume, turning off to the right (E) just past Old Tallangatta. Google maps will get you there.

Camp Fees: Note: These include all accommodation, food and activities; allow that children 5 years and under are offered a reduced fee. Additional donations to The Christian Community are gratefully received as the fees cover costs of the Camp only.
